That, notwithſtanding the ſaid Court proceeded with the utmoſt Caution in determining the Manner and Order of chuſing Directors, agreeable to the late Act of Parliament for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the Eaſt-India Company, as well in India as in Europe; and that they were warranted in the Mode of Election adverti ſed on the 23d of February, by the concurrent Opinions of Mr. Sayer, Mr. Dunning, and Mr. Madocks, as being perfectly legal; yet various Doubts having ariſen, under the Intricacies and Difficulties which the Act of Parliament preſents upon every Alternative; and ſeveral other Lawyers, equally eminent in their Profeſſion, viz. Mr. Solicitor-General, Mr. Jackſon, and Mr. Wallace, having delivered their Opinions, "That the ſaid Mode, as preſcribed by the Court of Directors, is totally illegal;" The Court, in order to avoid the dangerous Conſequences of any Error in their Proceedings, on a Subject of ſo much Importance, have again taken the ſame under their moſt deliberate Conſideration, together with the ſeveral Opinions of Council above referred to, and have unanimouſly come to the following Reſolutions, as the Manner and Order ſeemingly agreed by all to be free from any legal Objections; for chuſing Six Directors expreſsly for the Term of One Year; Six other Directors for the Term of Two Years; Six other Directors for the Term of Three Years; and the remaining Six Directors for the Term of Four Years, according to the Words of the Act.

Six for the Term of four Years.

That the Six Candidates, who ſhall have the greateſt Number of Votes in any one Claſs, ſhall be the Directors choſen for the Period for which they ſhall be ſo claſſed, and that no Votes ſhall be tranſferred from one Claſs to another; and if any Diſpute ſhall ariſe upon an Equality of Votes between any two or more Candidates in any of the ſaid Claſſes, the ſame is to be reported by the Scrutineers to the General Court, that the Choice may be determined in the ſaid Court by Lot, conformably to the Directions in the Company's Charter, for that Purpoſe.
